North American Christian Convention

This summer the North American Christian Convention meets in Cincinnati, OH – June 23-26. This convention is an annual gathering of Christians for worship, preaching, teaching, fellowship, and networking. It typically features top-notch speakers, worship leaders and Christian talent. Workshops, Bible studies and networking events offer attendees resources for their ministries and churches.

A full teen convention, including main sessions and workshops, is scheduled each year in addition to a Children's Convention and off-site trips for elementary-aged children.

Each year, the exhibit hall includes displays from hundreds of different organizations including Christian colleges, missionaries, churches, non-profit ministries, and publishing houses.

The NACC began in 1927 as a convention for vocational Christian leaders and has grown today to over 1.6 million members.

For registration information or how you might help go on line to www.gotonacc.org or pick up a brochure at the Connect Kiosk. While you may not be planning on attending we ask for your prayers for God's purpose to be fulfilled in this inspiring gathering of thousands of church members and leaders.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Bring Issues

WELCOME TO FIRST CHRISTIAN

Jesus said, "When you pray..."

He did not say, "If you pray..."

Today we begin a series on prayer...When You Pray.

Your prayer life is vital to your spiritual growth. Yet it seems hard to do.

Questions arise...Do I have to speak out loud? Do I have to use certain words? Is it ok if I write out my prayers? Why is it so hard to pray with my spouse? Do you think God is not answering my prayer? Etc.

We will discover throughout this series the purposes, practices and the benefits of a steadfast prayer life. The Bible teaches that God loves your prayers. He will bring renewal to you through your connection with Him.

Jesus desires to awaken your heart through your prayer life. See what He sees. Do what He does. He desires for you to mature and understand His will. He, also, teaches that when you pray you will experience a yearning for His will.

We Are Glad You Are Here!

Today in our worship we celebrate the fact that Jesus makes it possible for us to Belong to God, Connect with one another, Grow in faith, and Be the people who are called by His Name.
