

WELCOME TO FIRST CHRISTIAN

Jesus said, "When you pray..."

He did not say, "If you pray..."

Today we begin a series on prayer...When You Pray.

Your prayer life is vital to your spiritual growth. Yet it seems hard to do.

Questions arise...Do I have to speak out loud? Do I have to use certain words? Is it ok if I write out my prayers? Why is it so hard to pray with my spouse? Do you think God is not answering my prayer? Etc.

We will discover throughout this series the purposes, practices and the benefits of a steadfast prayer life. The Bible teaches that God loves your prayers. He will bring renewal to you through your connection with Him.

Jesus desires to awaken your heart through your prayer life. See what He sees. Do what He does. He desires for you to mature and understand His will. He, also, teaches that when you pray you will experience a yearning for His will.

We Are Glad You Are Here!

Today in our worship we celebrate the fact that Jesus makes it possible for us to Belong to God, Connect with one another, Grow in faith, and Be the people who are called by His Name.
