Wednesday Bible Studies

First Peter

6:30 - 7:30 PM - On Campus

We're called to "be alert and of sober mind" three times in First Peter - and for three different reasons - so we can pray; to resist the devil; and so our hope can be set on the grace to brought to us when Jesus Christ is revealed.

Peter, the brash fisherman called by Jesus to be a disciple and, now, apostle, writes a letter that truly speaks to us and our generation.

First Peter urges active faith and holy living. It reminds us that God has set us apart.

Join us in this study on Wednesday evenings.

Ephesians . . . Starting this week!

6:30 - 7:30 PM - On Campus

What does it mean to live our faith within society? the city? Albuquerque?

What do we do with the barrage of messages and influences? What do we do as old impulses rise up within us?

Paul writes a letter to multi-cultural churches established in and around Ephesus. He brings light to our understanding of our salvation, imitating God and encouraging unity.

Join us in this study on Wednesday evenings.
